The United States hereby advises the Court, pursuant to Local Criminal Rule 13, that this case is related to another case filed in this District, United States v. Cameron John Wagenius, CR25-142 KKE.

“When criminal cases involving common questions of law and fact (but not necessarily the same parties) are assigned to different judges, there may be good reason to assign all of said cases to one judge.” Local Crim. 1 Here, both cases arise from related conduct and involve some of the same stolen
2 victim information and related extortion. As such, these cases rely on overlapping 3 evidentiary material and legal process and arguably present common questions of law and 4 fact. Both cases also involve the same parties. The United States and the defense agree that 5 the assignment of both cases to the same judge may serve judicial economy.
